Stenographer's record.

- (A) Only at adjudication hearings in which the record may be the basis of an appeal to a court, will a stenographic record of the testimony and other evidence submitted be taken. The stenographic recording in those instances shall be taken at the expense of the board.
- (B) If an adjudication order is made without a stenographic record of the hearing, the board shall, upon request of the party, afford a hearing or rehearing for the purpose of making such a record which may be the basis of an appeal to court.
